PALMER LODGE NOTICE

MASTER'S MESSAGE

Welcome Brethren!

January was a busy month and yet it seems like we have not even started yet. We ushered in the New Year with our traditional New Year's Morning Reception which was very well attended. I think perhaps it had to do with the cooks for this year: our new officers did an exceptional job in preparing and serving the breakfast. A good time was indeed had by all.

January also saw the passing of two Entered Apprentices into Fellowcrafts; this was the first degree of the season and once again the ritual was completed in grand style by your new officers. Of course we are always open to outside help and so once again we need to send our heartfelt thanks to Frank Mayer for helping out with some of our lectures.

As our officers grow in their duties it is also incumbent upon our existing members to come down to the lodge and make sure we are meeting their expectations. With that we have a couple Master Mason degrees coming up tentatively in March; and I request the presence of all members who can make it to come down and assist us. We have some openings for grumbling craftsmen and we sure could use your insight!

February is turning out to be just as busy also. Henry L. Palmer Lodge will be hosting the District 12 Winter Meeting on Saturday, February 20th and we are also hosting the School of Instruction on the 26th. Remember brethren, all are welcome to these meetings. Because they are educational, I encourage you to come down and see what is going on. Due to our hosting the School of Instruction, our regular stated meeting will be moved from the 26th to the 19th of February.

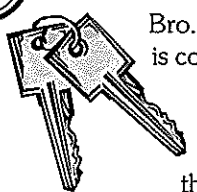

February 27th also brings back to our building the popular Masonic Angel Fund Trivia Night. This is a great evening of brotherhood and friendly competition with all money raised going to our worthy cause. Test your wits, share a story or joke with laughs, and enjoy good eats.

Perhaps my favorite passage of all time is the "St. Crispian's Day Speech" from Shakespeare's Henry the Eighth:

This story shall the good man teach his son...
From this day to the ending of the World,
But we in it shall be remembered;
We few, we happy few, we band of brothers

There is a magic in the word "welcome" that makes us forget the word "stranger" and causes us to remember that we are brothers banded together for the good of humanity by a special tie. One who has heard the word "welcome" can never again be counted a stranger. Welcome is the keystone of hospitality. It connotes open doors, friendly greetings, sincere handclaps and solid footing. All of this I extend to you and bid you welcome brother.

In wisdom, strength and beauty,
Khristian E. Kay, W.M.

Bro. John Wackman reports the NWMC is concerned that too many Temple outer door keys are in circulation. Those special keys may be identified by the trade name "medeco" embossed on the square headed key. Persons recognizing such a key who no longer have need for it may return it to NWMC Trustee Jack Jones.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS

Companions,

Our new dinner plan worked great, but we need to move it up in time. We will be meeting for dinner at 5:30 instead of 6. Dinner went a little long the last time, so we need to adjust the starting time. Also in January, we will be doing the MEM degree. Hope all can make the degree whether you have a part or not.

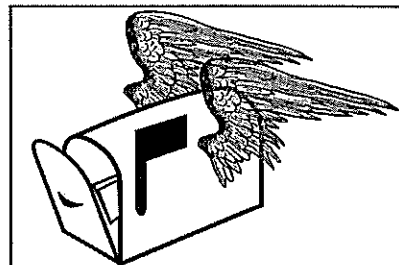

As we draw closer to Christmas, let us remember the reason we are celebrating. While being with family and exchanging gifts are the tradition, it is a time of remembering the birth of our Lord. Without His birth and teachings, our Book of Holy Writings would be incomplete. So in this time of giving, let us give a little back and remember what we are really celebrating.

MASTER'S MESSAGE

Greetings from the East,

I would like to take a minute to congratulate and welcome Brother Arun Thakor and Brother Kyle Webster on receiving their EA degrees, and I am looking forward to working with them on their future progression.

2010 holds all the promise of being another outstanding year for the Craft. There will be table lodges to attend, degrees to complete, and many opportunities for seeking more light over time.

I would like to report that fellowship between lodges is as strong as I have ever seen. I attended the New Years day breakfast at Palmer Lodge where the fellowship was great and it gave me a sense of energy for this new year. The discussion between lodges about coming events was really exciting. The opportunity to meet brothers, hear of their travels, and have an open minded discussion was invigorating. I would encourage all brothers to visit another lodge, meet the brethren of that lodge, and make the connection. The fraternity extends far beyond the walls of our own lodge.

In closing, I would like to ask everyone to review the EA picture lecture's tenets of our profession: Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. Take a minute to read through those paragraphs. Doing that made me take a look at myself. It reminded me to reach out to those who are in need. The support of brotherly love can make a world of difference to a person in need. The tenets also reminded me to speak the truth. Truth is a divine attribute and the foundation of every virtue. To be good men and true is the first lesson taught in Masonry. While influenced by this virtue, hypocrisy and deceit are unknown among us; sincerity and plain dealing distinguish us; and we rejoice in promoting each others welfare and prosperity.

Please mark Friday, March 12th on your calendar for the annual Bob Ross Table Lodge. Doors open at 6:00p.m.; the cost is $20. If you would like more information, please send an email to wisc.13@gmail.com and we will send the flier to you.

I would like to ask everyone who has not been to Lodge lately to stop in. There are a lot of really good things to take part in.

Fraternally yours,
W.M. Tim Zielinski

MASONIC ANGELS REPORT

Much excitement is brewing among folks who are saying nice things about the H.L. Palmer Masonic Angel Fund. In a recent 3-week period (December 15, 2009 through January 6, 2010) the fund distributed warm mittens and boots to needy children at the Madison Elementary School in Wauwatosa. Broad smiles lit up the faces of the 53 children and school staff, now knowing the kids were better prepared to face a harsh Wisconsin winter.

Without resting on their laurels, the Masons and their friends continue to raise funds through donations and their own hard work. Fund raising events on the horizon include a Trivia Night on February 27th, a Night At The Oscars on March 7th, and a possible Shrimp Boil later in March. The Angel Fund trustees are very thankful for the assistance of all who have donated their resources, time and energy toward the success of Angel Fund activities. You are making good things happen.

JOBS DAUGHTERS

Greetings from Bethel 2~
I hope that in the chilly cold of winter everyone is being warmed by the closeness of family and friends!

Bethel 2 has had a very busy January as it was Installation Season for Job's Daughters. The girls at Bethel 2 visited Installations at Bethel 3-Fond du Lac, Bethel 6-Milwaukee, Bethel 32-Green Bay, and Bethel 64-West Bend; but at the top of the list is the Installation held at home on Saturday January 16th. It was beautiful and I hope that everyone in attendance came away knowing why our organization is so important and valuable in shaping the minds of young women. Congratulations to Brianna Kearn, who was installed as Honored Queen, and to all of the girls at Bethel 2. You make me proud to be a Guardian!

February brings lots of excitement with a new term filled with events. The girls will be getting used to their new stations which come with new responsibilities. Drill practices are also coming into full swing as the girls get ready for our Annual Ball to be held on March 20th at Tripoli.

I am also so excited to share with everyone that Bethel 2 has some prospective members that we hope will join Bethel 2 at our Initiation to be held March 21st. If anyone reading this knows of any girl that would benefit as a member of our beautiful Order, this is the perfect time! They can join with other new members and share that bond of experiencing something fun and exciting with new friends!

I hope that everyone has a Happy Valentine's Day; share it with someone you Love!

Jobie Love,
Mom Beth Freuck, Bethel 2 Guardian
